ASAKUSA

The pre-eminent sightseeing spot in Japan, the charm remaining 400 history of Tokyo.

There are many shopping districts showing history and various characteristics around Sensoji temple.

Visiting here many times from another point of view gives you opportunity to discover new things.

Sensoji Temple 浅草寺

2-3-1, Asakusa, Taito

It is the oldest Buddhist temple in Tokyo, built in 628. In the precincts, there is the gate called Kaminarimon, having a large lantern as a landmark and a Five-Story Pagoda rising high and attracting a lot of tourists. It is the center of traditional "Edo" (old name for Tokyo) culture. In every season, traditional events such as "Hoozuki Market" and "Hagoita Market" take place.

Manner

How to visit a temple.

*1 The names inside of [] are in the case of Sensoji.

1 At the main gate of the temple [Kaminarimon], bow once with praying hands, and then go on the street [Nakamisedori]. *1

4 Enter the main hall and worship at there.

(Throw a coin to the box, clasp your hands in prayer towards and bow once, later bow once again.) *2

2 Clean your mouth and hands at Omizuya.

(Use the ladle with your right hand to scoop water and rinse your left hand, then switch the ladle and rinse right hand, switch again and pour water from the ladle into your left hand, and use that water to rinse your mouth silently. Stand the ladle up so the remaining water washes down the handle.)

3 Offer incense to the incense burners and bathe the smoke.

5 Bow and clasp your hands in prayer towards when leaving the main gate of the temple.

*2 When you visit a shrine, you are supposed to do "two bows, two craps, and one bow".

Nakamise-dori Street

仲見世商店街

It's one of the oldest shopping districts which goes from Kaminarimon (gate) to Sensoji (temple). There are about 100 shops along the street of 250 meters, and you can get souvenirs such as Japanese sweets, chopsticks, yukata (traditional cloth).

Charms · Omikuji

There are several ways to pray for good luck at the temple/shrine. Omikuji is a type of fortune-telling that prays to Buddha/God and predicts your fortune. You can experience it at around 100 yen. Various kinds of charms are also sold there and each of them has specific purpose, such as health, study, good luck, etc. You can bring it or display it in the room.

COLUMN

Having many unique shopping streets other than Nakamise shopping districts is one of the attractive points in Asakusa. If you walk around all of the streets and districts, you will be a master of Asakusa!!

Hanayashiki-dori Street 花やしき通り

The street, having a lot of shops, seems to be the reappearance of the townscape of Tokyo 400 years before. It was designed after the establishment of "HANAYASHIKI", the amusement park founded in 1853. There are lively shops selling Ninja goods and a photo shop where you can take photos with wearing Kimono.

Asakusa Nishi-Sando Shopping Street 浅草西参道商店街

Asakusa Nishi-Sando Shopping Street is only a few minutes away from Sensoji Temple, the heart of Asakusa. The street is popular for its scenery that recreates the Edo period (1600-1868). You will find some souvenirs of Japanese culture such as Sake and swords. Make sure to take a short stroll along Nishi-Sando Shopping Street when sightseeing in Asakusa!

Asakusa Rokku-dori Street 浅草六区通り

A shopping district where photographs of entertainers related to Asakusa are displayed, as theaters have gathered and prospered since the late 19th century. There are long-established coffee shop popular with pancakes, and large commercial facilities "ROX" and "Don Quijote" beside the street.

Kappabashi Dougugai Street かっぱ橋道具街®

Tool stores related to foods are gathered here. They sell sophisticated cutleries and kitchenware made by craftsmen. It is also attractive that there are many shops that you can buy high quality product at a reasonable price. Among shops dealing with food samples, displayed at a window of restaurants, you can try to make them by yourself.

UNAGI

A kind of fish having high protein and nourishment, with a light taste. It's common in Japan to eat them as "Kabayaki", opening and skewering them, and grilling with sauce, or "Unajyu", putting that Kabayaki on rice. In Japan, there is a custom of eating eel on the special day called "Doyonoushinohi (the midsummer day of the ox)" once or twice a year.

SUKIYAKI

One of the representative hot-pots in Japan. Beef, vegetables such as green onions and Chinese cabbages, and tofu, are boiled with the rich soup called "Warishita" that combines soy sauce, sugar and liquor. Eat these boiled ingredients with beaten raw eggs.

Night Life

Japanese "IZAKAYA"

Izakaya is where you can casually enjoy meals and alcohol together. Many Izakaya are usually found near stations so workers can enjoy eating and drinking with colleagues and friends after working. Order beers and meals, and have fun nightlife with locals!

IZAKAYA Manner

Manners unique to Izakaya

1

Order

You order alcohol first. When you want to order, say "Sumimasen" or "Onegaishimasu" (meaning "please") to clerks. Since dishes are small amount and reasonable price you can enjoy a variety of dishes. Asking recommendations to clerks and other guests are also enjoyable.

2

Appetizer (service charge)

After ordering the first drink, a simple dish separately from the one you ordered may be served. This is a service while you are waiting for the ordered dish, but it costs. In the case that it's unnecessary for you, please ask a clerk when you make orders; you can refuse it.

Recommended menu

There are standard menus in Izakaya. "Yakitori" is a dish grilling chickens skewered by a bamboo stick and you can choose which part of chicken you want to eat and which taste you prefer to add. "Oden" is a dish which vegetables such as potatoes and Japanese radish, and ingredients such as eggs and konnyaku are cooked with soup stock till they become soft. Please enjoy your meal while drinking draft beers with mugs or drinking sake.

Conveyor-belt sushi

At "Conveyor-belt sushi" restaurants, sushi on the dish go round on an annular rail set. You can take sushi as you like, and eat them made by chefs at low cost. Not only sushi but also sweets and side dishes like udon are popular.

YANAKA

Yanaka, the town where the time flows slowly

There are a lively shopping street as well as old Japanese-style houses. Interaction among people and old townscape which the time flows slowly remain here.

About "Shitamachi"

In the Edo period when the Tokugawa family (authority) had kept Bakufu (the government) in Edo (Tokyo) for about 260 years since 1603, the area where merchants and ordinary people live spread under Edo Castle was called "Jokamachi (castle town)", and later it's turned to be called "Shitamachi (old town)". Shitamachi still has a nostalgic life as you can find the scenery of a shopping street, traditional private shops, and wooden houses as well as daily communication among neighbors and festivals at a shrine. "Yanesen" area where Yanaka, Nezu, and Sendagi are all combined is representative in Tokyo.
